

Courses Broadcast FAQs

{slide=Where are the classes held?}

The classes are held online VIA our state of the art technology.

{/slide}

{slide=Who can take these classes?}

This Learning Method is specifically designed for those who wish to attend classes at the Foundation but are restricted due to travel and distance constraints.{/slide}

{slide=What is the difference between Courses Direct and Courses Broadcast studies?}

Courses Direct are held at the Foundation Premises where as Courses Broadcast Studies are online.

For example:

ARB 200.03 is offered at the Foundation every Sunday.

Courses Direct Student will come to the Foundation Premises and attend this course where as the Courses Broadcast student will take the same course (i.e. same time with the same professor)

online. {/slide}

{slide=What is the class structure?}

The class format is very much similar to that of a live class.

- The student is required to attend the classes.
- The student will need a microphone that is in good working condition.
- The student is required to complete assignments and submit them.
- The student is required to give in examinations to receive credit for their course.
- The student is required to participate in class and group discussions.

{/slide}

{slide=Will the teacher address our questions?}

Yes. The student will raise his/her hand and ask their question via microphone. The teacher and the class students who are taking the same course simultaneously at the Foundation will be able to hear the question. The teacher will then address the question in front of the entire class.{/slide}

{slide=Will we have any interaction with the teacher?}

Yes. The Courses Broadcast student can attend the Live Office Hours by making an appointment. They can ask questions, get homework help, examination preparation, discuss their progress and more.{/slide}

{slide=Are there any reviews?}

YES. The Courses Broadcast students can sign up for Online Review where they can view their class video recordings as many time as they want -A perfect review tool.

{/slide}

{slide=How are the exams conducted?}

The Exams will be sent to the VisiON student either electronically or via Postal Mail.

{/slide}

{slide=How will we send our examinations?}

The students can either

- a) Scan their exams and resend via email
- b) Fax their exams to the Toll Free number : 1-888-776-6912
- c) Mail their examinations via post.

{/slide}

{slide=What is the Global Student Feature?}

The Foundation is committed to making sure you retain the knowledge you have learned at the Foundation. Once you pass a course at the Foundation you can review the material and refresh your knowledge by retaking that course absolutely FREE at anytime for as many times you want whenever it's offered again.

{/slide}