

Courses Anytime FAQs

{slide=Where are the classes held?}

The Courses Anytime student can access their classes Online VIA their student accounts that will be given to them upon registration.{/slide}

{slide=Who can take these classes?}

These courses were designed specifically for those who want to learn Arabic and Islamic studies but are unable to attend a Live class either at the Foundation or Online due to time, travel, distant constraints, responsibilities and other obligations.{/slide}

{slide=What is the Class structure?}

The Courses Anytime student upon registration will receive an online package which will explain in details how they can access their courses and private accounts. The Courses Anytime student will be given a suggested schedule to follow but can change it according their own time and needs.

The student is free to access the classes ANYWHERE, ANYTIME and complete the course requirements without attending a Live Class.{/slide}

{slide=What do we do when we have a question?}

Courses Anytime students can attend the Live Office Hours by appointment and ask questions, get homework help, examination preparation and more.{/slide}

{slide=How long does a course last for?}

The Courses are usually a month long unless otherwise specified.{/slide}

{slide=Can we take a Live class along with a DigiBase course?}

Yes. A Courses Anytime student can take any other course offered at the Foundation premises or Online simultaneously.{/slide}

{slide=How are the examinations conducted?} The examinations are mailed to the Courses Anytime student either electronically or via post.{/slide}

{slide=How do we send in our examinations?}

The students can either

- a) Scan their exams and resend via email
- b) Fax their exams to the Toll Free number : 1-888-776-6912
- c) Mail their examinations via post.{/slide}

{slide=What is the Returning Student Policy?} The Foundation is committed to making sure you retain the knowledge you have learned at the Foundation. Once you pass a course at the Foundation you can review the material and refresh your knowledge by retaking that course absolutely FREE at anytime for as many times you want whenever it's offered again.{/slide}